

MIMOSA

Mimosa is a street installation design for london using real mimosa plant as a rain sensor. When the wheather get rainy, the water drop fall from the sky and touch the leaves of the real mimosa plant. Then the natural mimosa close their leaves while the robotic mimosa will open its leaves as a shelter for passengers.

